

Unix Shell cheat sheet

- `ls` - lists file
- `man` shows the manual for a command; use arrow keys to scroll up and down, `q` to quit
- `pwd` - shows the present work directory
- `cd` - change directory
- `touch` - creates an empty file
- `cp` - copys files and/or folder
- `mv` - moves files and/or folder
- `rm` - removes files and/or folder
- `less / more` - pager programs to open a plain text file interactively
- `cat` - writes the content of one or more file to the standard output
- `head` - shows the first lines (per default 10) lines of a text file
- `tail` - shows the last lines (per default 10) lines of a text file
- `cut` - returns column of a text file
- `wc` - word count, counts number of characters, words, and lines of a text file
- `sort` - sorts a test file
- `uniq` - removes redundancies from sorted list of lines
- `grep` - extracts line of a file that match a pattern